Undergraduate/Graduate Student Poster Competition Guidelines

Hunt Valley, MD

Wednesday, April 8th, 2020

- Posters must be from a current undergraduate or graduate student (as of April 2020) in one of the participating schools: Univ. of Maryland, Penn State, Univ. of Penn, Univ. of Delaware, Virginia Tech, Rutgers, West Virginia Univ.
  - Any potential posters from non-participating schools or individuals other than students will be considered based on space availability and will be considered ‘non-competition posters’.

- Abstracts must be submitted for acceptance by March 8th, 2020.
  - Abstracts must be no more than one page and follow the guidelines below (page 2). Any questions and to submit the abstract, please e-mail Dr. Carey Williams at the e-mail on the guidelines page.

- If accepted, the student will be asked to prepare a poster to be presented on the second day of the Mid-Atlantic Nutrition Conference, April 8th, 2020.

- The student must be present on April 8th to answer questions during the morning break. This is the judging period where judges will judge the posters for scientific merit, organization and presentation, and student knowledge of the project.

- Awards will be presented for the 1st through 3rd place graduate student and undergraduate student after the conference lunch on April 8th.
ANTIOXIDANT SUPPLEMENTATION AND OXIDATIVE STRESS IN THE EXERCISING HORSE

Carey A. Williams*, co-author, co-author, etc.
Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey
Department of Animal Science
84 Lipman Dr., Bartlett Hall
New Brunswick, NJ  08901

*Email: carey.williams@rutgers.edu

ABSTRACT: Text in one paragraph, 12 pt font, single spaced, one page. Abstract must cover: a brief introduction to your topic, materials and methods, results, discussion and implications. Acknowledgements should be saved for the poster.